

Repeal of The Libel and Slander Act

Direction from the Registrar of Corporation

September 30, 2026

The Defamation Act will come into force on October 1, 2026.

Pursuant to section 16 of The Defamation Act, The Libel and Slander Act will be repealed.

With the repeal of The Libel and Slander Act, the following will occur:

- The Registrar of Corporations will no longer be required to keep the register of newspapers and the register of newspapers will be decommissioned;
- The publisher of a newspaper will no longer be required to make any filings in the register of newspapers pursuant to The Libel and Slander Act; and
- All Libel & Slander entities will be made inactive.

Notice of this direction shall be posted to www.saskregistries.ca.
