Recommencement of Mailing of Notices and Verifications by the Corporate Registry – Postal Labour Disruption

Whereas subsection 15(1) of The Operation of Public Registry Statutes Act reads as follows:

15(1) Notwithstanding any other Act or law, if, in the opinion of a registry officer or the minister, the circumstances are such that it is not practical to provide one or more registry services or functions, a registry officer or the minister may, by order, suspend all or any registry services or functions for the period during which, in the opinion of the registry officer or the minister, those circumstances prevail.

And whereas the Corporate Registry may send notices both via an electronic service and mail service pursuant to The Business Corporations Act, 2021, The Non-profit Corporations Act, 2022, The Co-operatives Act, 1996, The New Generation Co-operatives Act, The Business Names Registration Act, and The Partnership Act, the Names of Homes Act and The Libel and Slander Act.

And whereas at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 25, 2025, certain registry services are unavailable due to a postal labour disruption by Canada Post, namely: Mailed notices in the Corporate Registry by Canada Post.

And whereas at 6 a.m. on October 11, 2025 Corporate Registry services to mail notices became available due to conclusion of the Canada Post labour disruption.

Therefore I, Sheri A. Hupp, Registrar of Corporations and Registrar of Co-operatives, do hereby order the recommencement of the mailing of notices of the Corporate Registry.

Notice of this order shall be published in the Gazette and be posted to www.saskregistries.ca.
